EXPERIENCE

- Freelance front-end developer:

I was part of a project that consisted of making a PWA for a gym.

The same was done with React.js using: redux, react hooks, custom hooks, sass, react router dom, i18n, bootstrap, postman, axios, methodology BEM, git, github, trello and scrum.

Working with a UIUX designer, we learned to guide ourselves from the design templates in Figma that she made, and copy as each view is required.

- Later I made small projects for my GitHub, and a portfolio with the intention of getting a job in a company.
